NEXT STEPS

LITTLE STEP: Read through the book of Colossians. Consider taking notes and writing down questions, and bring it with you to church so that you can make the most of future sermons.

BIG STEP: Set aside time to inventory the various areas of your life and what fruit they are or are not producing. Ask God to give you wisdom to discern what to make of it and if you should be stewarding these areas differently. Confess any mismanagement and re-commit these things to the Lord.

(Virtual) D GROUP QUESTIONS:
1 It is common for Paul to encourage the recipients of his letters to be filled with the knowledge of God and His Word. Are you intentional about this? If so, what are your typical practices (alone and/or in groups)? If not, what are the obstacles to overcome? Have you ever read the whole Bible?
2 Where do you need strength, power, endurance, or patience? Where do you feel weak?
3 Are you giving joyful thanks to God in this season? According to this passage, how are we enabled to do this?
TOUGH: What does a life that bears fruit look like? Where do you wish you were seeing more fruit in your life?
